Development programme of Hyderabad University

838. CHOWDHRY HARI SINGH: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) what are the broad features of the development programme for the Seventh Five Year Plan period drawn up by the Hyderabad University which is a Central University and approved by University Grants Commission;

(b) what is the number of additional posts of Professors, Readers and Lecturers sanctioned under the said programme;

(c) what are the essential qualifications and specialisation indicated for the above posts;

(d) whether the additional posts mentioned above have been filled up; and

(e) if so, which posts have not been filled up so far and what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY WITH ADDITIONAL CHARGE OF THE MINISTER OF STATE IN DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (PROF. M. G. K. MENON): (a) According to the information furnished by the University of Hyderabad, the University submitted proposals to the Commission amounting to Rs. 1439.96 lakhs for development assistance during the Seventh Plan. The Commission has so far made an allocation of Rs. 1010.02 lakhs. The main items of the development programme are construction of administrative and academic buildings, staff quarters, student hostels, purchase of books, journals and equipment, and creation of new posts for staff.

(b) and (c) The number of additional posts of Professors, Readers and Lecturers sanctioned are 23,23 and 9 respectively. While sanctioning the posts UGC did not indicate any specialisation. The essential qualifications for these posts are given in the Annex. [See Appendix CLIII Annexure No. 34].

(d) and (e) According to the information furnished by the University, 17 posts of Professors, 14 of Readers and 9 of Lecturers have been filled up so far. The remaining posts have not been filled up as the selected candidates are yet to join or have declined to accept offers of appointment, re-advertisement of posts because of unsuitability of applicants, litigation, etc.
